ORDER

This matter is before the court on Defendant's letter addressed to the undersigned [DE-57]. In his letter, Defendant has advised the court that his ability to speak and understand the English language is limited and that his attorney refuses to provide him with the assistance of an interpreter.

The Clerk is DIRECTED to provide Defendant's counsel with a copy of Defendant's letter. Defendant's counsel is advised that he may retain the services of an interpreter to assist him.¹

SO ORDERED.

This, the 23rd day of December, 2013.

JAMES C. FOX
Senior United States District Judge

¹Under the CJA Guidelines, found at <http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/AppointmentOfCounsel/CJAGuidelinesForms.aspx>, defendant's counsel may file an ex parte motion requesting funds for an interpreter not to exceed $2400.
